

Christian Scholz

German Attorney at Law since 1998
Avocat à la Cour (2000 - 2021)
Avocat honoraire (Paris) since 2021
Partner

✉ scholz@schiedermair.com
☎ +49 69 95508-132

Languages: German, French, English

Practice Areas

- Litigation and Arbitration
- Contract Law
- Insolvency Law
- Leasing Law

Practice Summary

Christian is admitted to the German Bar and the French Bar. For more than 20 years, Christian has been representing businesses and private individuals in disputes before German courts and arbitration panels. The focus of his practice is on business disputes.

Representative Client Matters

- European automobile manufacturer; litigate, enforce and defend against various claims
- Austrian financial institution; enforce compensation claims in Germany
- German leasing company; litigate, enforce and defend against various claims (payment/restitution) arising out of a leasing relationship
- German financial institution; litigate and enforce claims arising out of a credit relationship
- Various international companies; litigate, enforce and defend against claims arising from dealership agreements
- German telecommunications company; litigate and enforce outstanding lease payments and defend against claims arising from feed-in and signal delivery agreements
- Public credit agency; defend claims made in relation to stock purchases
- Public credit agency; consult and represent with regard to claims arising from a consultancy agreement
- Managing directors/shareholders of various foreign and domestic companies with regard to claims against, or brought by, insolvency administrators
- European distributor; litigate and defend various claims
- German software company; defend claims from a service agreement

Professional Memberships and Activities

- Frankfurter Anwaltsverein e.V. (Association of Frankfurt Attorneys)

Education and Career

Christian has been a German Attorney at Law since 1998 and Partner at SCHIEDERMAIR since 2003. He is one of the firms founding members. Christian worked at OPPENHOFF & RÄDLER (today LINKLATERS LLP) from 1998 to 2001. In 2000 he was seconded to the Paris office of the Swedish firm of LAGERLÖFF & LEMAN.

Christian completed a formal training program as an Industrial Manager at Siemens AG in Frankfurt, Berlin and Munich. Subsequently, he studied law in Frankfurt and Paris. In Paris he obtained the French law diploma "Licence" and "Maîtrise". He completed his post-graduate legal training period (Referendariat) primarily in Frankfurt, but also in Paris and London.

From 2000 to 2021, Christian Scholz was admitted to the Paris Bar as an Avocat; after giving up his admission in 2021, he was awarded the title of Honorary Avocat.